

WORKSHOP 2. The intersectional perspective in political practice

26th September 2018

Marta Cruells

Presentation of the facilitator

Marta Cruells has a PhD in Political Science and a degree in Philosophy. She is currently a gender equality policies and international relations consultant in Barcelona City Council. Her fields of analysis and research are social and political inequalities, violence, social movements and public policies. She has diverse publications in books and journals and recently co-edited the book "Igualdad de género y no discriminación en España" with the Centre of Political and Constitutional Studies.

Objectives of the workshop

- To demonstrate how intersectionality is applied in the different phases of public policy.
- To identify obstacles and facilitators in the application of intersectionality in local administrations.

Programme

- Briefly revisit the concept of intersectional perspective.
- Revise the implementation of this perspective in recent years.
- Analyse an example of inclusion of the intersectional perspective in the diagnosis, design and implementation.
- Revise our policies to detect potential practices, although incipient, of the intersectional perspective.

Methodology

The session will be divided into two sections: the first will provide a conceptual overview and review specific intersectional practices. In the second section, subgroups will collectively detect and explain possible practices from the intersectional perspective.

Reference articles or bibliography

- Kimberlé Crenshaw. 1991. "Mapping the Margins: Intersectionality, Identity Politics, and Violence Against Women of Color." Stanford Law Review, 43:1241-99. Women of Color at the Center: Selections from the Third National Conference on Women of Color and the Law.
- Davis, Angela. 1981. Women, Race and Class. New York: Random House.
- Platero, Raquel (Lucas) (Ed.) 2012. Intersecciones: cuerpos y sexualidades en la encrucijada. Barcelona: Bellaterra.

Other resources

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=akOe5-UsQ2o> Ted talk by Kimberlé Crenshaw.