Title of the workshop
Intersectionality in social movements: experiences and challenges
Objectives of the workshop
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>-To consider how the intersectional logic emerges from social movements.</li> <li>-To reflect on how the intersectional perspective can provide tools for social movements (debates, difficulties, facilitators).</li> <li>-To provide specific experiences of dialogue between social movements and local administrations which have incorporated an intersectional perspective.</li> </ul>

Programme
-Concept of intersectionality: dilemmas and challenges to our context. -Tackling intersectionality in research in Madrid: the identification of counter geographies among citizens. -Counter geographies in the city of Madrid: three examples to consider the relation with social movements.
Methodology
The presentation will be combined with participative work that will enable each agent to discuss the experience and concepts covered in the presentation with their contexts of intervention, research or planning.

Description: "In addition to the conference on intersectionality by Marisela Montenegro, doctor in Psychology and researcher in the research group "Fractalidades críticas", the conference held by Espai Avinyó on 3rd December 2015 shared the experiences of Teo Pardo, Marga Alonso and Wafae Moussaoui Rahhab, who, as explained by intersectionality, are affected by different axes of discrimination. The discussion was chaired by Brigitte Vasallo".
