

Workshop on tools

Reviewing the municipal work spaces and questioning our imaginaries

Based on different questions we will analyze how the organizational structure, the disposition of the spaces or the way we relate with each other can favor or hinder the intersectional work in our daily practice. We will also question our own beliefs and cultural frameworks and reflect on how they condition our intervention.